Brief Profile of the College	Besant Evening College founded on a noble idea and the first co-education institution sponsored by Women's National Education Society in the year 1796 by late Manel Srinvas Nayak to provide educational opportunities to employed youth. With the motto of 'Learn while they Earn'. Besant Evening College admits students who have limited economic resources. The college was declared open in the month of October 1976. Indeed Besant Evening College owes much to the missionary zeal of visionaries like Late Manel Srinivas Nayak, the founder President. Late b Damodar Prabhu and Late Manel Krishna Nayak, the former presidents and many more who endeavoured to build this edifice of learning. Besant Evening College is a grant-in aid College recognised by the UGC under 2(f) and 12B. The college is centrally located in the city of Mangaluru. The College holds classes late in the evening especially designed to offer higher education to working students of a disadvantage background. The College has a dynamic Management, blend of experienced and young and young faculty, vibrant Alumni Association and a supportive PTA. The College offeres three year B.Com programme and a Post Graduate M.Com Programme.
